CAVANAUGH'S CORNER:

Dear Parents;

Happy Friday to you! This morning you may have noticed a person dressed as a chicken. That person was me. I hope I did not scare some of the little students. I wore that because we made our school goal for the magazine drive. My Thanks to all of you who supported this fundraiser!!

Just a remember that next Friday October 23rd the students will not have school. The teachers and I will be in in-service. Also, the 1st trimester interims will be going out on October 22nd from the homerooms.

On Monday, this week air conditioners were installed in the preschool classrooms. My thanks to our parishioners for giving money during Sunday Collections to make this dream a reality. My Thanks to Father Jim for spearheading this project and seeing that it was done. Speaking of Father Jim today is Boss' Day. I could not have a better Boss than Father Jim. We are extremely fortunate to have him as our Pastor leader for our Parish. Father Jim Thanks for all you do for me, the students, and the staff of our school. You are the best!!

Until next week,
Stay close to God and to each other,
Mr. Cavanaugh

UPCOMING DATES:

Friday 10/23	No school, Staff in-service

USED UNIFORM: This year we are excited to have used uniforms available throughout the year. We have different sizes, shirts, pants, shorts, some spirit wear even a few skirts and jumpers. Should you need something, please contact Michelle Korb at stdominicuniforms@gmail.com. Also, if you have things to donate back to the school, please contact her as well.

COKE REWARDS: Help St. Dominic School earn money with the Coke Rewards Program. Look for codes on Coke product caps or Coke product packaging. Save the cap or cut out the code on the packaging. Put them in the collection boxes located in the school office or gym. St. Dominic PTO will enter the code online and credit St. Dominic to earn money for the school. Thanks for your support!!

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: This year looks different in many ways, but St. Dominic is still committed to offering wonderful programs like Junior Achievement (JA). In the past, parent volunteers would come into the classroom and guide the students through five pre-planned lessons about how to be a responsible participant in our community. Many parents have struggled to find the time to come into the building during their work day to volunteer--- Great News--- JA is being offered differently this year due to COVID so more parents can volunteer! This year the teachers will present the JA program content with the volunteer participating in a supportive role. This role could be as little as a 15 minute remote content overview (live or recorded) on the topic at hand, or a larger role in each lesson as the teacher and volunteer design. This is one of the very few opportunities to “touch” the classrooms this year, so please consider this opportunity. Please contact Jaychele Charles to learn more or sign up! bcandjay@gmail.com or 827-6401

QUARTER ZIP ORDERS: This week in the yellow envelope there is an order form for the quarter zips that can be worn as part of the uniform. An order form is also attached but must be printed and sent in to school. This is not affiliated with the Spirit Shop. Orders are due back to school by Thursday, October 22nd.
